

Goblin Battle?

The trolls begin to talk in a language you do not understand. They begin to split off heading one to your left and the other to your right. Their weapons on the ready one makes a lunge for you but you quickly move out of the way.

"This should be fun!" the goblin yells as it steadies himself again for another strike.

Can you slay the goblins or will you become yet another victim?

Instructions

In order to defeat the goblins you need to obtain a battle sheet from Master Heeb. It contains a number of questions regarding concentration and how to calculate it. Each question is worth a different amount of damage. Each correctly answered question deals damage to the enemy while incorrect answers result in you taking damage. When you think you have defeated the enemy return the sheet to Master Heeb to enter your battle!
